

Foolish Farmer

Look at the pictures and circle if it is a need or a want.

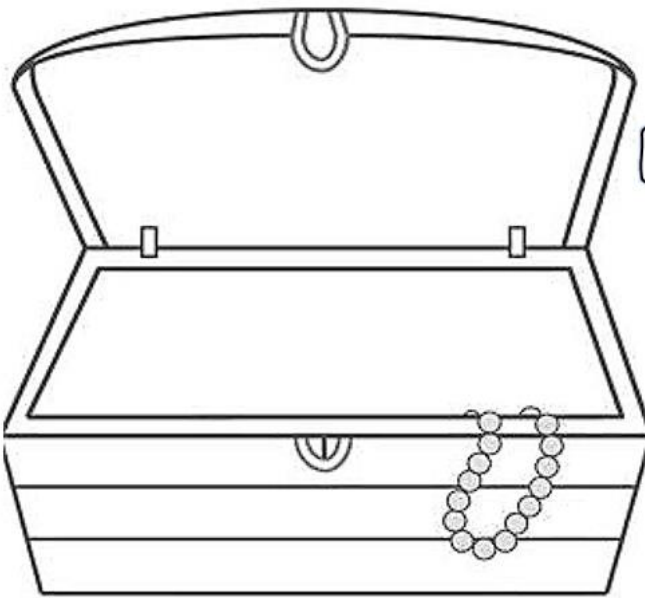

Match the wheat with the correct number in the barns.

a bed	need	an ice cream	want
the sun	need	shoes	want
candy	need	trees	want
electricity	need	bicycle	want

"Love God, not riches"

Draw something that you 'treasure' in the treasure box

R is for Rich

F is for Fool

1. What happened to the rich man's fields?

too much

2. What did the rich man decide to do with the crops?

OR

build bigger

3. What did the man sell to buy the treasure he found?

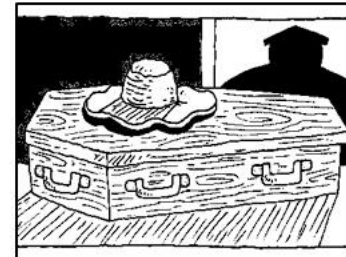

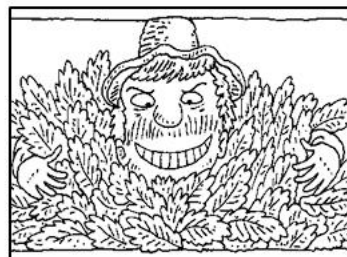

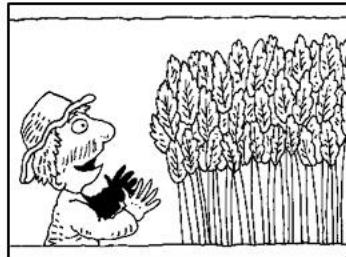

4. What did the man sell to buy the perfect pearl he found?

5. What should our goal in life be?

Going to heaven

Cut out sentences and stick under the right picture

Suddenly, the silly, greedy farmer died. The crops meant nothing to him now - silly farmer!

The farmer was selfish and wanted it ALL for himself!

The silly, greedy farmer built huge big barns to keep his crops in

"Fool! So is he who lays up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God." Luke 12:21

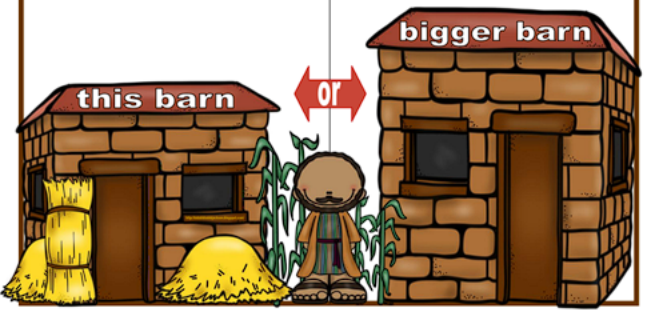

Jesus told this story about a farmer who was happy he grew lots of crops

Sometimes there are things we WANT but not necessarily things we NEED in life. Can you think of some examples for both columns below?
